

National Gathering Presentation Proposal Form

The National Gathering is a place where educators and partners in education can celebrate, renew and rebuild relationships and share experiences with a mutual goal of improving educational outcomes of K-12 Indigenous students. Indspire continues to showcase strategies that grow Indigenous student success and this year seeks out submissions that highlight pedagogies inclusive of Indigenous cultures, languages and perspectives that engage schools, educators, parents and communities to advance system change so that within a generation, every Indigenous student will graduate.
